

Final Examination

When/Where: Tuesday, May 11, 9:40 a.m.–11:30 a.m., N122

Percentage of Course grade: 28%.

Format: Closed book, closed notes, closed computers. If I ask you to say or prove something about a typing or evaluation relation, I'll give you the rules for the relation.

Examinable Material: Everything covered in the chapters of TAPL and DAWOC that I assigned as reading, plus everything covered in class. I will emphasize material related to the assignments.

Proofs You should expect to write a few small proofs.

OCaml Programming You should expect to write a small OCaml program.

Old Exam: When studying, make use of the old final exam (and model answers) that is on the website. Try taking this exam under exam conditions.
